“Mobilité quotidienne des familles et rapport au temps et à la ville intelligente.”
(Families’ daily mobility and their relationship with time management and the smart city)

I read the research project described in the information letter.

I have been informed about the research objectives, the data-gathering methods and the nature and terms and conditions of my participation to this research project.

I have also been informed about:

- a) the way in which searchers will ensure the confidentiality of data and personal information;
- b) my right to stop using the mobile app, to end the interview or its recording, if this is what I want, or my right to answer some questions;
- c) my right, as a voluntary participant, to withdraw from the research process without negative consequences;
- d) my right to contact the Research Manager if I have any questions about the project (Marie-Soleil Cloutier: 514-499-4096 marie-soleil.cloutier@ucs.inrs.ca).

I understand that I can withdraw from the research at any time and not be obligated to answer any questions without giving any reason and without being penalized.

I have been assured that every word collected during the interview will be preserved confidentially and treated anonymously.

I give the Research Manager, named below, the authorization to quote some parts of the interview exclusively for research ends.

With this letter, I agree to take part in the research according to the terms and conditions described in the Information Letter about the project, joined in the Appendix.

I agree to sign this Form in two copies, and I agree to keep a copy.
